ARMIN WILLIAM BRAND
919 N. MICHIGAN AVENUE
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

March 14, 1941.

Mr. E. G. Johnson,
408 Olive St.,
St. Louis, Missouri.

Dear E.G.:-

I have made the reductions requested on the U.S. Patterns Silver and Minor, as listed on the card which you gave me, as per list enclosed herewith. However, there is one number, namely #320, on your card, which you state should be revised to $75.00. According to my records #320 is an 1857 Cent in nickel, flying eagle, large letters around border; Reverse; Tobacco wreath, long stem, priced to you at $25.00.

With respect to the Kohler Bar, I hate to let it go at $5,000, as this seems to me to be a terrific deduction, but after all, I know nothing about coin conditions and if you think this is the top you can get for it, I am willing to accept it.

I hope you have fully recovered from your cold.

As ever yours,

A.W.
